Off-grid solar container methods for austrian power plants

Friday (s) is/are my day (s) off.

Hi all, if I don't work on Fridays, and I want to express that using "day off", should I say: 1. Friday is my day off. or 2. Fridays are my days off. My guess is that 2 is correct because every ...

start off / start out / start , WordReference Forums

Also, "starting off" could be replaced by "starting out". The issue is not whether "to start off" can be followed by a gerund/participle or an infinitive; it is the intended meaning of "start off".

Ohio river question , Ohio Game Fishing

There are several large rock piles about 30 yards off this particular section of greenup pool shoreline. You can see them above waterline during low water levels and they are not on your ...

casting off the rocks from michigan to P.A.

E55 was hot tonight. Almost didn't go because of the nasty wind, but it seemed to slow a little around 4, so decided to go down. Fished from 530-830, and it was non-stop action up and down

Describing the action of taking off shoes

Using a short phrase describing the action of one taking off one's own shoes with one's own feet? In another word, one's left foot stepping on one's right side shoe to take off one's right side ...

First off/ first of all

"First off" is a bit more informal than "first of all," although technically they mean the same thing (at least in AE). "First off" also sounds a little more like a BE usage than an AE usage.

Back up or Back off

To me, Back off! is an instruction to mind your own business, and to back up is to drive backwards to avoid some obstacle or give another vehicle space (figuratively, and transitively, it also ...
